

Immunotherapy Tablets vs. Circava Drops

Which is right for your patients?

	Prescribed Oral Immunotherapy	Circava System
Treats a wide range of allergies	Limited to dust mites, grass and ragweed pollen	Able to treat: Allergic rhinitis Allergic asthma Atopic dermatitis Allergic conjunctivitis ...and more
More than one treatment required for patients with multiple allergies	Yes	No
Length of treatment	3+ years	3+ years
Safe for children (3.5 +)	No	Yes
Requires a prescribed epinephrine auto-injector	Yes	No
Safe for patients on ACE inhibitors	No	Yes
Adverse side effects	Abdominal pain Nausea Vomiting Anaphylaxis (10%)	None
Average time to symptom relief	6 months or more	28 days
% of patients who reach maintenance	Up to 80%	84%
Suitable for patients on immunotherapy or taking beta blockers	No	Yes

Circava System™ therapy is a novel, fast-acting oral allergy immunotherapy that can work for more of your patients.* While you prescribe and manage their treatment, the patient administers the drops at home, saving them multiple trips to your office. Best of all, you can keep your patient within your practice, without needing to refer them to an allergy specialist.

For your patients with allergies, consider the benefits of the Circava System!

Call us at 833-476-8367 for more information.

*Theresa A. Grandoff, B.S., Roberto Garcia, M.D. Subcutaneous Immunotherapy Transitioned to Sublingual Immunotherapy during the COVID-19 Pandemic in Asthmatic Allergic Rhinitis and Non-Asthmatic Allergic Rhinitis Patients: A Retrospective Chart Review

